

WIFE OF PLYMOUTH EDITOR TO ASSUME DUTIES AT CAPITAL

Mrs. Boys Named Woman's
Publicity Editor for G. O.
P. National Committee.

"Woman's Publicity Editor for the Republican National Committee" is the task for which Florence Riddick Boys, wife of Samuel E. Boys, editor of the Plymouth Daily Pilot, has been appointed by the Republican National Committee during this campaign. During the early married life of Boys, from 1895 to 1902, he was a young South Bend attorney, but the lure of newspaper work soon drew him from that field, where both he and his wife faithfully belonged. Her new office is a recently created place on the committee for which Chairman John T. Adams and Secy George B. Lookwood felt there was a distinct need. Mrs. Boys was called to Washington last week to confer about accepting the place and at that time arrangements were made for her to do the work. Her headquarters during the campaign will be in the Municipal Building in Washington, where she will be put out the publicity matter directed especially to the women of the country.

Fitted For Work.
Mrs. Florence Riddick Boys in pecuniary straits for this work, by birth, education, and experience. She comes of a family in whose veins runs printers' ink. Among them are numbered editors and writers.

Her mother won wide reputation in Minnesota for her poetry contributions to local papers. She was the niece of Ezra Cornell, the founder of Cornell university.

Both her father and mother were graduates of Albion College, Albion, Mich., where he was Salutatorian of his class and she was Salutatorian of her class and she was Salutatorian of her class and she was Salutatorian of her class.

Mrs. Boys' father is a Methodist minister who has done some newspaper work. Her brother is Congressman Carl W. Riddick of Montana, who knew nothing of her call to Washington, however, as he is in his native state busily pushing his campaign for nomination to the senate.

When her husband became an editor it gave her that outlet she needed for a more steady production of writing. During college days she had been an editor of the college paper and in the years that followed she had done some work for different magazines. For 20 years Mrs. Boys has written various things for her husband's paper. Her woman's page of the Pilot became such a notable success that it has been syndicated to other papers throughout the country and is read by over a million women daily.

Talented in Politics.
During the campaign of 1920 she wrote a booklet giving reasons for women joining the Republican party. It was thought of very highly by members of the National Committee and described by one of them as "the best piece of political literature put out by a woman in 20 years." Mrs. Boys also contributed frequent articles to the National Republican and her display of talent along political lines had been believed to have been that which caused her appointment by the committee.

Local Persons to Attend Joint Recital at Winona

Savi has had a remarkable career. He was born in Venice, Italy, in 1893. His father was a harp maker and fashioned the boy a miniature instrument upon which he took his first lessons before he went to school. Savi is a boy, winning the Royal Scholarship prize that thus enabled him to receive his training at the expense of the Italian government. He graduated three years ahead of his class with the highest honors. He is a composer, director and has been declared to be the greatest concert artist of all times.

Vets Must Secure Certificates Of Injury By Aug. 9

Foreign War Vet Commander
Warns Against Delay in Filing Applications.

Dr. George A. Gersler, commander of the George A. Campbell Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, especially calls attention to ex-service men to a notice received from headquarters at Nashville, Tenn., concerning application for certificates of injury. Any such applications must be made before Aug. 9 and failure to do so will react against the veterans in that they will not apply for compensation within five years from date of discharge.

The service man who has in any way been incapacitated through injuries directly traceable to the war, should not fail to get such certificates even though they do not intend to make use of them at the present time. The federal statute under which compensation is given makes it imperative that they have such a certificate if disability resulting from such an injury.

It is not necessary to file claim for compensation or to take any formal action other than writing a letter to the director, United States Veterans Bureau, Washington, D. C., giving the name, rank, organization, date of enlistment and discharge and stating the circumstances under which the disease or injury in question was incurred.

The important point is that unless veterans have a certificate of injury they will not have their claim for compensation allowed after five years from date of their discharge.

Fail to Locate Husband Of Auto Accident Victim

The completion of funeral arrangements for Mrs. Silas Lee, American wife of the Korean partitioned of the Oriental Inn, who was killed in an auto accident on the Edwardsburg road Sunday afternoon, has been delayed owing to the failure of Lee's fellow-countrymen to locate him.

The husband of the victim of Sunday's tragedy, while interested in the local restaurant, is at present employed as a traveling salesman and his exact whereabouts are not known although he was believed to have been in Columbus, O., at the time of the accident. Telegrams addressed to him at the Waldo Hotel in that city have failed to bring any reply and it is thought that he did not receive the notification of his wife's death.
